

Anthology, Inc.
PO Box 4411
Mesa, AZ 85211-4411
www.anthology.org

Anthology Bulletin
Monday, February 18, 2008

24 Hours of Poetry to be Valley's First

Scottsdale, AZ – Anthology, Inc. is proud to announce the first ever 24 hour poetry open microphone for the valley. The show will feature 24 hours of poetry being read by attendees starting at 6pm, Saturday, April 5th until Sunday, April 6th at 6pm.

This event will be held at Chyro Arts Venue, 1330 N Scottsdale Road in the Papago Plaza. The show will be free for all to come and attend, listen, and read.

The event will be hosted by David Tabor. David has been a poet and contributor to the Valley literary scene for fourteen years. He is a Mesa Slam Team Alumni, and has hosted events across the valley. He is also the director of multiple performance poetry films, including The Mesa National Slamoff 2007, as well as Patrick Hare Hates You, among others.

Additional details of the event are available at the event's home page:

http://www.anthology.org/Events/Event_24hrMic.html

About Anthology

Founded in 1994, Anthology is a premiere literary nonprofit in Arizona. Anthology's mission is to promote performance poetry and associated literary arts in the greater Phoenix community by providing opportunities for artists to perform their work and by making spokenword arts accessible to a diverse audience.

Since 1994, Anthology has coordinated and promoted countless spoken word events and programs designed to enrich the lives of our community.

Press Contacts

Dave Tabor
Host, Organizer, The 24 Hour open Mic.
24hourpoetry@cox.net

Bob Nelson
Executive Director, Anthology, Inc.
(480) 461-8200
bob@anthology.org