

Anthology, Inc.
PO Box 4411
Mesa, AZ 85211-4411
www.anthology.org

Anthology Bulletin
Sunday, March 23, 2008

Largest Teen Poetry Event in State Set to Launch

Mesa, AZ – Registration is now open for Anthology's 2008 annual Voices of Youth (VOY) Teen Poetry Festival, which will take place throughout the month of April across the Phoenix valley.

Anthology, Inc., in partnership with libraries throughout the Greater Phoenix Area and Bookman's in Phoenix, is offering a unique opportunity for Phoenix area teen poets to step up and be heard in the single largest locally organized poetry event the Phoenix valley will see this year.

Teens will read their poetry at one of eight preliminary events to qualify for a chance to compete at the final event, which is scheduled to take place at Bookman's on April 26, 2008 from 1-3pm. Our sponsor, Bookman's Entertainment Exchange, will provide prizes for the events.

Each participating preliminary venue will host a teen poetry slam, with as many as 15 teens competing for Bookman's trade credit, and to qualify for a coveted spot for the final event. Interested teen poets should register through the VOY website at <http://www.anthology.org>. Only 15 teen poets will be allowed to read at each location and registration is first-come first-served.

About Anthology

Founded in 1994, Anthology is a premiere literary nonprofit in Arizona. Anthology's mission is to promote performance poetry and associated literary arts in the greater Phoenix community by providing opportunities for artists to perform their work and by making spoken word arts accessible to a diverse audience. Anthology is an Arizona nonprofit corporation and an IRS recognized 501(c)(3) organization.

Since 1994, Anthology has coordinated and promoted countless spoken word events and programs designed to enrich the lives of our community.

Press Contacts

Lori Whipple
Events Coordinator, Bookmans
Entertainment Exchange
phoenixevents@bookmans.com

Bob Nelson
Executive Director, Anthology, Inc.
(480) 461-8200
bob@anthology.org